

EVERY TEAR IS A TATTOO

© Frank Jones

Everywhere she goes
Everyone she knows
Says, "Girl, you're lookin good"
But she knows

And every smile she smiles
Stays for a while
But she ain't fooling anyone
I'll tell you why

Every tear is a tattoo that never really fades
There for all the world to see forever on her face

*She walks out her front door
She holds her head up high
She puts on her brave face
But she knows, she knows everybody knows*

Every tear is a tattoo that never really fades
There for all the world to see forever on her face

Everywhere she goes
Everyone she knows
Says, "Girl, you're lookin fine"
But they know, yes, they know

Every tear is a tattoo that never really fades
There for all the world to see forever on her face
Every tear is a tattoo that never really fades
There for all the world to see on your beautiful face
